Pull up a chair to a time-honored buffet tradition when lunchtime rolls around. For nearly 50 years, Sneaky's Chicken has been serving up delicious comfort food for a steal in Siouxland, retaining their commitment to reasonably priced tasty eats. In addition to the lunch buffet, don't miss out on Sneaky's signature recipe: broasted chicken. This combination of a classic frying process with a pressure cooker produces an incredibly crunchy and flavorful meal, bite after bite. If chicken isn't your thing, check out their popular offerings, like the meat-laden Sneaky's Stuffer burger or the delectable pork tenderloin that makes up Sneaky's Pride.

The Hard Rock Hotel & Casino is a one-stop shop for an evening of entertainment. Amp up your adrenaline by hitting the blackjack table, try your luck with roulette, or get yourself a comfortable seat and surf the slot machines. Of course, it wouldn't be a rockin' night without some tunes, so check out their roster of live music and shimmy your way into after-hours fun!

If you want to fuel up your evening without leaving the Hard Rock party, never fear—one of the best restaurants in Sioux City is right on site. Main + Abbey blends an edgy rock decor with ultramodern gastropub creations, like their Aged Gouda Mac 'N' Cheese or Tuscan Shrimp + Sausage Pasta. Top off the taste explosion with a signature cocktail, like the spicy Bleeding Heart or the heavenly Enchantment Elixir.

Day 1

DELIGHTFUL DONUTS MEET DINER BLISS & ROCK 'N' ROLL REVELRY

Breakfast time is the best time for a sweet treat, and even better when it ends with an unforgettable night at the Hard Rock.

Donuts are both a classic morning staple and a culinary taste sensation, and at Jitters in Sioux City, you get the best of both worlds. Their delicious secret? On-site baking with an old machine from the much-beloved former grocery chain, Sunshine Bakery. You can get this sweet taste of nostalgia served up fresh and warm daily with a hot cup of joe or take advantage of their extensive café menu, including omelets, bagels, smoothies, and delectable Italian sodas.

Day 2

COOL CRAFT BREWS MEET SAVORY AMERICAN DISHES

The craft brew scene is booming in Siouxland, and it's the right place to spend a casual evening in a hometown favorite.

What is the best way for beer lovers to kick up their heels in Sioux City? At the breweries, of course! Kick things off at the bright, spacious, and ultra-modern Marto Brewing Co., where a comfortable atmosphere and mouthwatering taste reign supreme. Explore on-tap craft brew concoctions that rotate seasonally, with everything from flavorful fruit sours to Citra hops sensations and beyond. Be sure to bring your appetite because their extensive menu features taste sensations ranging from crab cakes to wood-fired pasta, elevated pizza pies, and beyond.

Keep the party brewing at family-owned Jackson Street Brewing, with its industrial, exposed brick ambiance and warm, knowledgeable staff. Browse over 15 craft brews on tap and select by your preferred flavor profile, whether your pleasure is "Dark & Roasty" like a stout or "Malty" like a lager. Don't forget to feed your cravings at El Comal", the griddle inside Jackson Street's building, well-known for flavorful burritos, tacos, and more.

As day two comes to a close, it's time to bring it all back home in Siouxland at the Miles Inn. While the Miles does not have a full restaurant menu, it is famous for its lip-smacking loose meat sandwich, the Charlie Boy. This local legend is known for its inviting vibe that feels like your hometown sports bar. Swing by for a Charlie Boy and one of the "coldest beers in Iowa," and stay for the big game on a big screen.

PETE'S THAI ON 5TH

Day 3

TAKE YOUR TASTEBUDS ON A FLAVOR VACATION

Siouxland is a diverse culinary hub, so you can become a world traveler of taste without even leaving the area.

When it comes to delicious international dishes, Siouxland is the place to get out and explore. Da Kao Restaurant blends two wildly popular cuisines under one relaxed, casual roof, offering a menu with something for everyone. If you're looking for fan-favorite Vietnamese pho, you'll find a wide variety of hearty beef and pork recipes, steamy cơm tấm rice platters and savory specialties like the decadent bánh mì barbecue sandwich. If you're craving some Chinese comfort food, take a peek at their full Chinese menu as well.

Thai cuisine has taken over the foodie scene, and everybody loves a classic pad thai when dining out. Sioux City's own Pete's Thai on 5th is locally famous for its traditional pad thai, rice paper Fresh Rolls and vibrant Yellow Curry. If you want to shake up your palate with distinctive flavors, grab an order of the decadent cream cheese crab rangoons or the truly unique Chef's Special Stir-Fried Thai Ramen.

Popularized in Greece in the 1920s, the gyro has become a global favorite and a staple of Greek fare. If you're hunting for a flavorful gyro in Siouxland, check out Greek to Me!, a cleverly named eatery with a mixed traditional and contemporary menu. Take your gyro classic, spicy, or with one of their signature recipes, like the Gyro Philly or the Gyro Pizza. Thinking beyond meat alone, check out their mouth-watering Feta Philly, refreshing Village Tomato Salad, and take it back to basics with a side of spanakopita.
